

Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Controlling Lifting Operations – Slinger/Signaller (Construction)

For operators of telescopic handlers

The aim of this qualification is to recognise the knowledge skills and competence demonstrated by an individual in the workplace. This Level 2 NVQ Diploma in Controlling Lifting Operations – Slinger/Signaller provides the opportunity for individuals who specialise in slinging to demonstrate their competence.

Below specifies the combination of units that need to be achieved for the individual to be awarded the qualification.

Units

- Conforming to General Health Safety and Welfare in the Workplace.

Unit Code: QCF641

1. Comply with all workplace health safety and welfare legislation requirements.
2. Recognise hazards associated with the workplace that have not been previously controlled and report them in accordance with organisational procedures.
3. Comply with organisational policies and procedures to contribute to health safety and welfare.
4. Work responsibly to contribute to workplace health safety and welfare whilst carrying out work in the relevant occupational area.
5. Comply with and support all organisational security arrangements and approved procedures.

- Conforming to Productive Working Practices in the Workplace

Unit Code: QCF642

1. Communicate with others to establish productive work practices.
2. Follow organisational procedures to plan the sequence of work.

3. Maintain relevant records in accordance with the organisational procedures.
 4. Maintain good working relationships when conforming to productive working practices.
- Attaching and preparing suspended loads for movement using lifting accessories in the workplace

Unit Code: QCF402B

1. Interpret the given information relating to the work and resources when attaching and preparing suspended loads for movement.
 2. Organise with others in which sequence and operation for attaching and preparing suspended loads for movement is to be carried out.
 3. Know how to comply with relevant legislation and official guidance when attaching and preparing suspended loads for movement.
 4. Maintain safe and healthy working practices when attaching and preparing suspended loads for movement.
 5. Select the required quantity and quality of resources for the methods of work to attach and prepare suspended loads for movement.
 6. Minimise the risk of damage to the work and surrounding area when attaching and preparing suspended loads for movement.
 7. Complete the work within the allocated time when attaching and preparing suspended loads for movement.
 8. Comply with the given contract information to attach and prepare suspended loads for movement using lifting accessories to the required specification.
- Guiding, positioning and placing suspended loads in the workplace

Unit Code: QCF402C

1. Interpret the given information relating to the work and resources when guiding, positioning and placing suspended loads.
2. Organise the sequence and operation for guiding, positioning and placing suspended loads.
3. Know how to comply with relevant legislation and official guidance when guiding, positioning and placing suspended loads.
4. Maintain safe and healthy working practices when guiding, positioning and placing suspended loads.
5. Select the required quantity and quality of resources for the methods of work to guide, position and place suspended loads.
6. Minimise the risk of damage to the work and surrounding area when guiding, positioning and placing suspended loads.
7. Complete the work within the allocated time when guiding, positioning and placing suspended loads.

8. Comply with the given contract information to guide, position and place suspended loads to the required specification.